

A City of 3,000 Without A Church

On June 25, a meeting was held in the Midwestern Memorial church basement at the request of the Hospital Campaign Committee from Traverse City State Hospital. The hospital was represented by Mrs. Dorothea Hildgerd and Mr. Roscoe Woodcock. They outlined the plans and asked for our help. A large percentage of the ministers of some of the civic groups were in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to interest the people of Crawford County in the proposed new hospital chapel at the State Hospital. Crawford County is one of 39 counties served by Traverse City and we are also one of two counties which have not as yet contributed anything towards the chapel. Traverse City State Hospital is now 77 years old and for the first time in all these years, they now have two full time chaplains, a minister and a Catholic priest. They are both very outstanding men and loved by the 3,000 patients but they have no churches to serve from. They have services in makeshift rooms which are very inadequate. These same rooms are used for card games, ball games, dances, etc., and are up three and four flights of stairs which makes it impossible for some of the elderly people to attend. The new plan is for one ground floor building, with three

A summer-winter "tip-up" floats among the nonsinkable area buoys which can be anchored in place by the lighthouse buoy (model) on the dock which lights the line buoys and is also used for a boat dock light. The dock itself, and the 100 footer shown in the background is a new type which firmly anchors itself, adjustable, portable and built free, easily assembled with nothing protruding. These and other beach items, now being manufactured on a small scale, are expected to be made by the "Lake Margrethe Enterprises Manufacturing Company" which is now in the process of being formed.

Michigan's "Iron Fist" Division To Arrive At Camp Saturday

Engineers Are In Training Now

Michigan's highways, leading to historic Camp Grayling and its sprawling target ranges and infantry course sites, will be crowded this Saturday with approximately 6,500 troops, officers and mobile equipment rolls towards Grayling for their yearly 15 day field maneuvers and exercises. About 6,000 members of Michigan's 46th Infantry Division will trek to Camp Grayling for 15 days of summer field training. About 2,000 of them will be from Detroit - area National Guard units. Detroit area guardsmen will be leaving armories at 1 a.m. next Saturday. The last convoy will depart at 8:45 a.m. The convoys will use Michigan highways 102, 150, 59, and 24, Interstate 75 and 96 and US-23 and 10 both the trip north and the return to Detroit.

These troops will join the Division's engineer units who have already been in camp for one week. The engineers have been busy working on infantry courses. The engineers will stay at camp through the midweekend and take part in the Division Review before departing for their home stations. The engineer groups are at the Camp to handle a considerable amount of construction. The engineers from several states helped to construct thirteen live fire courses. They are known as squad or platoon live fire infantry courses. Material for the thirteen courses, including lumber, cable, etc., will run about $40,000.

Training at Camp Grayling will be at the platoon-battery level. Division training mission is to prepare adequately organized and trained units capable of participating in combat operations after a minimum post mobilization training. In carrying out this mission units will conduct squad and section refresher training, platoon-battery live fire exercises, and retaining of individuals and sub-units concurrently with basic unit training. Tactical bivouacs will be held during both weeks of the encampment. Battle groups, artillery battalions, tank battalions, and supporting organizations will conduct their own individual tactical bivouacs. Each organization will spend four consecutive days and nights in the field. In addition to basic unit training, combined arms training will see rifle companies, tank units, artillery and engineer units carrying out joint exercises. All units will conduct a minimum of 88 hours of training during the 15-day period. Traditional events will mark the halfway point of the 1963 field training encampment at Camp Grayling. The annual division review will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, July 13, and the division memorial service at 10 a.m., Sunday, July 14. ## Bells To Toll ON July 4th

Governor Romney today announced a statewide "ringing of the bells" on July 4th to commemorate our nation's founding and urged every citizen and organization to participate in this historic ceremony. At the same time, Governor Romney announced that the Hi-Y Clubs of the Michigan YMCA's would coordinate plans for the ceremony, and that Grand Rapids high school senior, David Dekker, would serve as state chairman. Dekker, 18, served as youth governor of the State YMCA Youth Legislature last December in Lansing.

Elizabeth Davies, 17, president of the Alma Tri-Hi-Y Club, will serve as vice chairman. In a proclamation issued on the anniversary of Paul Revere's famous ride, Governor Romney urged all citizens and government bodies to ring the bells in their communities for four minutes at 1 p.m. on July 4th "as a solemn tribute to our country's founders and as a rededication to our national unity and our undying devotion to our country and for what it stands."

Governor Romney pledged his wholehearted support of the nationwide program initiated by two Connecticut men who were concerned that the Fourth of July had evolved more into a summer holiday than a patriotic festival. "The sound of the bells will come as a thrilling reminder of what the Fourth of July stands for, challenging each of us to remember the heroic resolve formed by the men who pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor, 187 years ago," Romney said. "One hundred and eighty-seven years ago on July Fourth, 56 free men loving men penned democracy's greatest manifesto. The Declaration of Independence embodies our proven and great American principles and represents the bedrock foundation of our nation and our people. This was a divinely inspired document voicing what our nation's founders believed would be a new order of the ages," the governor's proclamation reads.

CITY MANAGERS NOTES

On April 9, 1963, the City Manager wrote the Department of Conservation lands division asking that a lands use title be given the City of Grayling to the forty acres used on the sanitary land fill. On June 24th, the City received their deed. The city now has a valuable tract of land that will serve the city as a sanitary land fill for the next estimated 50 years at its present rate of use.

WATER METERS
Because of the difficulty that the city experienced in installing water meters on or before the dead line for billing, it was felt by the city manager that the water customers could read their own meters. By so doing, the readings would come in to the office by the first of each month. The citizens would eliminate the bother of having a city employee tracking through the house and by so doing our water bill would go out on time and a considerable saving to the city would be made. However, it didn't work out that way, so starting the first of July, the City will read the water meters each quarter. "every three months", and will continue to bill each month. A minimum bill will be sent each month and at the end of the quarter, or the third month, and adjusted bill will be made as the meter is read. It is hoped that this method which is widely used throughout the State will be satisfactory to the customers and will make it more convenient to pay the water and sewer bills. Harold S. Cliff

Mercy Hospital Announces Rise In Room Rates

Last year, over 4,000 patients were rendered service at Mercy Hospital. Of these 4,000, over 2,000 were "bed" or "in" patients. These "in" patients were rendered over 15,000 days of care. Nursing care, meals, room, laundry, housekeeping, heat, light, and a personal touch, cost these patients approximately 75 cents an hour.

Due to rise in costs for salaries, lights, sewer, food, supplies and equipment, hospital costs have risen. For 2 1/2 years there has been no change in room rates at Mercy Hospital. Sister Mary Janice RSM, Administrator, regrettably announces that starting July 1, 1963, rates for semi-private and ward rooms will be increased by $1.50 to $2.00. Operating room and treatment charges will remain the same.

Progress Report School Building Program

A meeting was held on June 18 in the Home Economics Room at Grayling High School, the purpose of which was to receive bids for the rehabilitation of the existing high school structure and to review questions which have been raised in conjunction with the new elementary school.

1. During the afternoon the representatives of the Architects and Engineers met with the representatives of Consumers Power Co. to discuss the routing of the power service to the new elementary school. It was decided that the type of service that would be supplied to the school would be 120/240, 4 wire, 3 phase service. The location of the service was discussed later in the evening with the Board of Education and approved as recommended by the Architects and Engineers and Consumers Power Co. The service will be located on the north side of the access road to the city property, the transformers will be located on the pole outside of the school property. It was mentioned that Consumers Power Co. should make every effort to relocate the existing service line across the site prior to August 15, 1963.

2. Bids were received on the rehabilitation of the existing high school structure and the low bidders were as follows: General Construction, Gust Construction Co., Cedar Springs, Mich.; Electrical Construction, Dryer Electric Co., Fremont, Mich.; Special Equipment, All Purpose Draperies, Jenison, Michigan.

3. The Architects and Engineers recommended that the low bidders be awarded contracts in all cases contingent upon the valuation of the proposal supplements. The Board of Education authorized the Architects and Engineers to proceed to issue letters of intent based on the evaluation of these supplements.

4. The Architects and Engineers are to submit color samples of the gymnasium dividing curtain as well as the flooring material for the third floor corridor of the existing high school at next meeting.

5. A discussion was held relative to the type of energy which should serve the kitchen area of the elementary school. After a caucus of the board, a decision was rendered that the kitchen should be an all electric kitchen.

6. It was indicated by the Architects and Engineers that if the stage were reduced in size by approximately 13 square feet that the sprinkling system could be eliminated. The Board of Education authorized this reduction.

7. Final approval of the contract documents on the new elementary structure will be reviewed with the Board of Education on July 15, 1963, at 7:30 P.M.

The Good Society...

What is The Good Society? Many a profound book has been written in seeking to answer that question, many more will roll from the presses as the years spin by.

But it can be answered, in essence, in very brief and simple terms. It is a society in which each individual has the inalienable right to choose his path in life within a framework of equitable laws designed to prevent him from encroaching upon this same right in others. No law can make men equal—but law can guarantee equality of opportunity.

It is, above all, a society in which individual freedom is limited by, and only by, the right of a people as a whole to maintain, secure and protect itself.

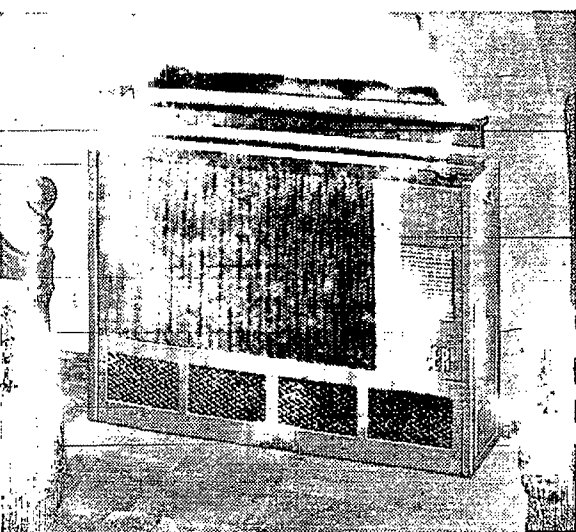

It is a society which fully recognizes the Jeffersonian maxim: that government is best which governs least. Freedom without fear; strength without coercion; pride without arrogance; and an endless sense of the worth of man, not only in the mass but in the one—these are marks of The Good Society.

War Mongering Imperialists!!!

Are you aware that the long-respected Boy Scout organization is turning American youngsters into hostile, war-mongering imperialists? And that every boy who is forced into the Scouts is trained to be master of all forms of espionage, violence and germ warfare?

If you aren't aware of this, you haven't been keeping up on your reading. For that is what the principal Soviet newspaper, Pravda, has told the Russian people. And Pravda—which means, of all things, Truth—is practically required reading in Russia.

That isn't all. It seems, Pravda continues, that younger boys are forced into the Cub Scouts, where their preparation begins for future foul deeds. Even this doesn't end the tale. For there is a sister group known as the Girl Scouts. These girls, reports Pravda, are unpaid door-to-door cookie vendors, and the revenues they obtain "... go directly to the Wall Street master minds of the entire plot."

It is difficult for an American to believe, but the Soviet people are fed lies of this character year after year. It is a process of brainwashing. There is no access to a free press.

Here is the reason why such strenuous effort is given to possible ways to reach the Soviet people with western beamed radio broadcasts and by such other means as may come to hand. This is a slow process. But, in time, drops of water wear away stone.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

July 4, 1940

Last Friday was a great day in the history of the City of Grayling when its new electric light and power plant was officially dedicated. Mayor Burke opened the program by telling about the ceremony at the electric plant in the afternoon, and introduced Dr. Claude R. Keyport, toastmaster of the evening. T. P. Peterson was the first speaker and gave a review of the last 15 years in Grayling. The last sawmill ceased operations in 1925. All that was left at that time was the Kerry & Hanson Flooring mills, and later came the National Log Construction Co. In those days Grayling had sawdust streets and no pavements. Grayling's only bank had closed its doors, and it was decided in 1932 that we should have a new bank. Since that time eight years, this bank has made over 8,000 loans and had no losses from them. Over eight million dollars have passed through and many transactions have been handled. In 1935 Grayling voted and built new waterworks and scrapped its old-type form of government and adopted the managerial type of city government, with five councilmen, one of whom was to serve as mayor. It was the responsibility of this council to engage the services of a city manager who was to devote himself full time to city affairs.

A fine tourist park was established at the Ausable River freed from contamination by the building of a modern disposal plant. In 1937 a new postoffice was built, of which we are very proud. In 1939 our old telephone system was replaced with a modern dial system. And now our new municipal electric light and power plant is in full operation and giving good service.

Ten girls were guests of Patsy Hope Heric Thursday afternoon when she celebrated her birthday anniversary. ## Flies and mosquitoes spoiling outdoor fun?

Never again! Now Scotts scientists make it easy for you to keep these annoying pests from plaguing you and your guests. You do this with new Boon, a potent powder easily applied with a turn of the crank of Scotts new Zephyr.

Once or twice a week you dust Boon into shrubs, flowers, foundation plantings, other areas where insects land and feed. The Scotts Zephyr atomizes Boon in a dry fog, depositing a nearly invisible film. When insects land in the vegetation and come in contact with Boon they meet their doom.

With Boon you easily make your own yard an island of freedom. There is no odor, no mess and no worry. Use as often as desired without endangering people, plants or pets.

Chiggers a problem? They won't be if you drift a light cloud of Boon across the lawn.

It takes less than 10 minutes to treat the typical yard area with Boon and the Scotts Zephyr. One or two Boon treatments a week will keep insects under control — and assure you of the pleasantest summer you ever spent outdoors.

Her waist-length veil was held by a small jeweled crown, and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses, stephanotis and ivy with white streamers.

Her attendant was Miss Sally McNamara of Port Huron. Mrs. Howard Schmidt of Detroit was best man. Donald Smith, Jr. of Detroit, and Walter Neilson, brother of the bride, were ushers. Michael James Sweeney, nephew of the groom, was altar boy.

The bride's mother chose a pale blue gown of eyelet with white organza accessories. Mother of the groom was dressed in navy blue lace with white accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held later at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with the traditional tiered wedding cake, the white tablecloth decorated with pink streamers and silver bells.

The newlyweds left by plane Sunday, the 23rd, for their new home in California, at 1228 South Pacific, Santa Ana, Calif. For her going-away attire the bride chose a blue and white knitted cardigan suit and white accessories. Mrs. Freund is a 1961 Grayling High School graduate, also graduating this year from the Saginaw Business Institute. Her husband attended Notre Dame High school in Harper Woods and radio and electronics school in Detroit.

Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Pohlman and family of Delphos, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pohlman of Sperryville, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Freund, Jr. of Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sweeney and family, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Freund of East Detroit, Ed Freund, home from Kalamazoo college, Mrs. Marie Jeffrey of Elk Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, and family.

She also has a year of bacteriology at the University of Michigan, Toronto and Connecticut.

Ms. Pierce has been on several committees of the American Society of Hospital Pharmacists. C., and is past president of the Massachusetts Society of Hospital Pharmacists. In addition to her many professional activities Ethel is active in a host of social and political areas. She had a very interesting European trip last fall. The journal editor commented that "Mrs. Pierce obviously writes her article from a wide background and broad experience."

St. John Lutheran Church Activities

Overnight guests last Friday at the Rev. Harris Jespersen home were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck and their children from Hartley, Iowa. They were enroute in their trailer to the NEA convention in Detroit.

The children of St. John Sunday Church School enjoyed a picnic last Wednesday at Higgins Lake State Park accompanied by their teachers, mothers and friends. The time was spent in swimming, games and eating delicious picnic food. There will be no Sunday Church School at St. John in July and August, but a two-week session of Vacation Church School is planned for August.

Rev. and Mrs. Harris Jespersen last Friday concluded their teaching at a well-attended enthusiastic two-week session of Vacation Church at Messiah Lutheran Church in Roscommon.

Detroit people of Danish descent residing at Danish Landing, and other friends in Grayling, were saddened last week on learning of the death of Mrs. Svend Jorgensen, wife of Pastor Svend Jorgensen, now retired, who was pastor of St. Peter's Danish Lutheran Church in Detroit for over 25 years.

Crawford County A $1,772,000 Food Market
(Special to the Avalanche)
NEW YORK — Retail business in Crawford County moved forward in the past year as local residents, armed with more cash, spent at a record rate.
Only during the early months of the year, when the fear of a recession was in the air, did they hold back in their buying. Thereafter, they spent freely.
As a result, most retail lines locally were able to report solid gains over the previous year.
The figures are contained in the annual survey made by the Standard Rate and Data Service. Its comprehensive report, showing how people in each locality spent their retail dollars, covers every section of the United States.
In Crawford County, food was a major item. The amount spent in this direction — in grocery stores, bakeries, butcher shops, supermarkets and the like — came to $1,772,000 in the year, topping the prior year's $1,561,000.
This was solely for food purchased for home consumption. It does not include the sum spent for food and drink at lunch counters, in restaurants and at other dine and drink places.
Out of every dollar that was spent in the local retail stores last year, 25 cents went for take-home food.
The large-scale spending for food, a sign of more luxurious living, reflects the improvement in purchasing power locally.
If the amount that was expended on food were to be divided uniformly among the local population, each household would have a bill of $1,222 for the year.
This was more than was spent in most parts of the United States. The average was $1,038 per household. In the East North Central States, it was $1,073.
Other retail lines also profited from the strong consumer buying. Stores selling automobiles, motorcycles, boats, trailers and accessories chalked up a volume of $1,636,000. It represented 23 cents of the retail dollar.
Sales of general merchandise, in department and variety stores, totaled $264,000, equal to 4 cents. Apparel shops accounted for $290,000, or over 4 cents of the dollar.
Home furnishings stores had receipts of $149,000, which amounted to 2 cents.

The Supremes, a young, outstanding, all-girl vocal trio, are exciting artists who specialize in pop and jazz numbers. Best known for their Tamla hit recording of "Buttered Popcorn," backed with "I Want a Guy," the Supremes, who were enroute to stardom, found their success train temporarily derailed because they were in high school at the time and unable to travel. Now as graduates, the Supremes (and they are really supremes) are firmly on the road to fame and fortune. Their most recent release on the Motown label, entitled "Your Heart Belongs To Me" is in the top 100 national chartwise.

If the show has success in entertaining the troops, local residents and tourists, two more similar revues will be planned to take place at the midweek points of both the encampments of the Indiana and Ohio National Guard.

The revue, although of the most modern and sophisticated character, will be real community-type entertainment. Colonel Rasak said. Both evenings the gym will be supervised by members of the Michigan Guard's Military Police companies in association with local law enforcement officers.

Tickets are now available at any of the following places of business: Olson's, Grayling Mercantile, Baringer's, Hunter's Dairy, Werf's Lone Pine Inn, Wharf's Dinner Bell, Grayling State Bank, Dingman's Tavern and the Crawford County Avalanche.

separate chapels, one Catholic, one Protestant, and a Jewish Synagogue, and a large classroom which can be used for Sunday school, Christian Science Reading room, etc. There will also be Chaplains' offices where the patients and relatives of the patients can confer with the chaplain at any time. The project aims are threefold:

1. To maintain and complete the finest religious climate for the 3,000 patients.

2. To provide the Chaplains with facilities so vitally needed.

3. To give every patient a source of hope, and improve his possibility for a better recovery.

We have planned another meeting for July 9 at 8:00 o'clock at the M. M. church basement and we urge each minister and priest and at least one representative from each civic organization and Club in the County, and anyone interested, not just Grayling, but Fredonia and Lovells as well, to meet and discuss this project and see what we here in Crawford County can do towards helping these people have a chapel. Most of the money is already raised or pledged. This is not only an act of charity but it is also our obligation as Crawford County has from 10 to 12 at the hospital most of the time. We are one of the smaller counties and are not expected to do what the larger ones have done, but we should do something. Our gift, whatever we select, will bear a nameplate "Given by the people of Crawford County." Please come to this meeting July 9 at 8:00 to help us make the plans. We know you will want to have a part in this worthy endeavor.

Editor's Note — Following is a second article written by Joseph of "Grayling," which is the first in a series of articles appearing in the summer issue of the "Grayling" with a typical German family in a typical German change program.

Today I begin the third of my stay in Germany. By now I am well settled with my family and I would like to tell you about them and about the country.

I am staying with the I. Day family, the double name resulting from a second marriage. Heinz and Elli Kraus are German parents. He is now in an elementary school. My wife is a typical German. Both are very nice. (Unfortunately for me) speak quite well.

I am always reminded of my little four year old son. He doesn't speak English, but I think the language is universal. Now comes Jorgen, my ten year old brother. He is a school comparable to college and the other boys I have just like any of the Grayling. The family is out by an older brother who is working out of town. We live in Treysa, a town of 10,000 inhabitants in Germany. This part of the country is comprised of mountains, deep forests, divided by narrow streets still lead buildings dating back to the 1700's.

The buildings are an interesting mixture of old and new, quaint and very lovely. The narrow streets still lead buildings dating back to the 1700's.

Judging from the other have seen, I would say that this is a typical German town. The history dates back long before Columbus was born. The narrow streets still lead buildings dating back to the 1700's.

We have a great many planned for the summer and I will be able to bring you a picture of a German family home. Good-bye for now.
